

Farm Quiz

Have you got what it takes to work on a farm?
Complete the quiz below to find out!

1. What is an adult female horse called?

2. A baby sheep is called a..

3. What is added to milk in the process of cheesemaking to coagulate the milk?

4. A Merino is a breed of...

5. Baby rabbits are called..

6. A horse's height is measured in..

7. A horse between the age of one and two years is called a..

8. The process of removing a sheep's wool to use it for fabric is called..

9. Saddleback is a breed of..

10. A person who fits horseshoes and performs horse foot care is called a..

Answers:

1. Mare
2. Lamb
3. Rennet - Rennet is an enzyme produced in animals' stomachs that helps the milk become solid and turn into cheese.
4. Sheep - Merino wool is one of the softest and finest wools in the world.
5. Kits
6. Hands - There are four inches to one hand.
7. Yearling - Yearlings tend to be quite spirited and are not really able to be ridden just yet.
8. Shearing - Sheep are usually sheared in the spring so they will be nice and cool during the summer.
9. Pig
10. Farrier - In the olden days, the town farrier was generally also the town blacksmith.