

Oh Wonderful World!

Our planet is an wonderful place, and we've only got one! You have a duty to protect the planet and preserve it for generations to come. Get to know the planet better by guessing the correct country for each of the wonders below. Then, share your newfound knowledge with your friends and family!

1. This country is lucky enough to receive over 3000 hours of sunshine per year, making it one of the sunniest places on earth.

2. With steamy geysers, hot springs and fiery volcanoes to explore, it's easy to see why this country is known as the land of ice and fire.

3. This country has the largest reef system in the world. It is so big, it can even be seen from outer space.

4. Every year this country holds an ice and snow sculpture festival which attracts more than 800,000 visitors.

5. Burgers were invented in this country and over 40 billion of them are eaten.

6. Lots of people visit this country to see the giant pyramids. The oldest and largest pyramid was built around 2560 BC.
