

TEACHER'S NOTES

STONE THE CROWS

JUST ENGLISH VOL. 14 ISSUE 4
KOREAN BEAUTY TRENDS

UPPER INTERMEDIATE (C1)

INFORMATION REPORT

EXERCISE 1

Circle the sentence that is true.

1. Crows belong to the ___ family?
a. Corvidae
b. Cornellus
c. Bird
2. Crows are known to be the most ___ of birds.
a. dangerous
b. intelligent
c. noisy
3. How do crows use cars to break nuts?
a. They leave it on the road and let cars run over it
b. They drop it on the car hood.
c. They knock it on the car windshield.
4. What does the English expression "stone the crows" mean?
a. An exclamation of incredulity or surprise.
b. An exclamation of distrust.
c. To point out something which seems suspicious.
5. Crows are capable of making tools as a means of _____.
a. escape.
b. war.
c. foraging.

6. Crows have a brain-to-body mass ratio similar to _____.
 a. great apes
 b. humans
 c. elephants
7. Clark's Nutcracker is a species of crows well known for their _____.
 a. good memory
 b. intelligence
 c. tool making

LEARNING ACTIVITY

Identify the types of birds shown in the pictures belonging to the Corvidae family? Search online to find the differences between them.

1.

RAVEN

3.

MAGPIE

2.

ROOK

4.

CLARK'S NUTCRACKER